Paul:

JANO has been a proud partner of the Sangamon County Circuit Clerk since our company's inception in 1989. And we continue to break down barriers for Circuit Clerk software within the state of Illinois. Much has changed in 28 years, but we continue to be a proud partner of yours. This letter serves as the official notice to extend the Software Maintenance Agreement JANO Technologies, Inc and the Sangamon County Circuit Clerk that was originally signed and dated December 11, 2013.

Whereas the above referenced agreement expires on November 30, 2017, the Sangamon County Circuit Clerk has given notice to extend the agreement for an additional five years per the terms of the agreement. All of the terms in the agreement remain intact with the exception of two changes:

1. Paragraph 7 Term: The term of the agreement now will extend for five additional years, and the expiration of this agreement is now November 30, 2022.
2. Software Maintenance Agreement Form Schedule A: As a result of the renegotiation between JANO and customer allowed by the original agreement, an updated Schedule A is attached to this letter. This schedule A should replace the one in the original agreement.

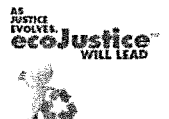

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have agree to the terms within this agreement, on the day and year first written above.
