Questions

Asked

Can any high school student be an election judge?

No – only seniors or juniors currently enrolled in a public or private high school that meet specific qualifications.

What are the specific qualifications?

- U.S. Citizen
- Cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 on 4.0 scale
- Written approval from principal and parent or legal guardian
- Satisfactorily complete training course
- Access to a vehicle and cell phone

Do you receive pay for working as a judge?

Yes – students are paid the same rate as all other judges which is $220.00.

How many hours do you have to work?

Polls are open 6:00 am – 7:00 pm. You must report to the polling place by 5:00 am and remain until closing duties are completed.

How do I become a Student Election Judge?

Complete the form inside and return to your Guidance Counselor. We will then contact you as needed to schedule you for a specific precinct.

If I submit the form, will I definitely be scheduled to work?

Students will be used throughout the County to fill any vacant judge positions. Unfortunately, we may not be aware of where and how many vacancies exist until one to two weeks prior to the election. We will do our best to use as many students as possible and provide you with notice as timely as possible.
